2. Because of this policy of planting opium, there is a serious famine in Yunnan, and anti-government (non-Communist) popular forces have taken one town in north Yunnan. The Communists are taking full advantage of the popular discontent and, led by LI Chia-p'i, have taken Saumao (101-04, 22-47), southwest Yunnan.

25X1A ~~SECRET~~ Comment. Reported food shortages and peasant rebellions in Yunnan are confirmed in general from other sources. It is doubtful that the cause for them is a deliberately-planned planting of opium, under pressure from LU Han, with a resulting shortage of acreage planted in food crops.

25X1A * ~~SECRET~~ Comment. Presumably the arms are purchased from the French.

25X1A  See ~~SECRET~~

25X1A  ~~SECRET~~ Comment. The name usually given for the Yunnan Communist leader is CHU Chia-p'i, deputy commander of the Kwangsi-Yunnan-Kweichow Border Column.
